

2019 – 2020 NFL Playoff Follow The Spread

- 250 Per Team
- Luck of the draw, randomly drawn no later than January 3 at 8pm.
- Teams must win by point spread for the player to advance.
 - Example:
 - Joe picks New England and Bill picks Kansas City. New England is favored by 4.5 points over Kansas City. The final score is New England 24 and Kansas City 21. Bill now takes over possession of New England and Joe is out of the pool.
- Point Spread will be taken from www.donbest.com , Opening lines will be used.
- If any point spread is on a whole number the spread moves up a half of a point.
 - Example:
 - 12 becomes 12.5, 9 becomes 9.5, 6 becomes 6.5 etc...

Winners:

Conference winners will get 500 points each.

Super bowl winner will get 2000 points.
